Home Language Information
Federal policies require schools to determine the language(s) spoken at home for each student. If the answer to any of the questions below is a language other than English, your child may be assessed on the WIDA ACCESS Placement Test to determine English language proficiency. Based on the results, your child may be identified as LEP and qualify for ESL services. All identified LEP students will be assessed annually until LEP is exited.
What language did your child first learn?	What language is most frequently spoken at home?
What language does your student usually speak to communicate?
Parent/Guardian Information
Do you (parent/guardian) need translation services?		If yes, in which language?
Do you (parent/guardian) need an interpreter for school system meetings involving your child's education?		If yes, in which language?
Parent/Guardian Print Name		Date
